Independence Day

- by Aadya R P, Cl. VIII

Let's talk about the 15th of August – a date with destiny. Six Countries got their Independence on this very day. They were destined too. They are Bahrain, Congo, Liechtenstein, North Korea, South Korea and our great country, India.

As the first PM of India truly described this moment as "TRYST WITH DESTINY". He said, "At the stroke of the midnight hour, while the world slept, India awakened to life and freedom".

Independence Day is a National festival of India. It is a special day for every Indian Citizen. The day reminds us of the great freedom fighters of India. Their life is a source of inspiration for us. Every year our Prime Minister unfurls the National flag from ramparts of Red Fort followed by the National Anthem.

The British rule lasted in India for over 200 years. And, now after Seven decades, Independent India is the 5th largest economy, the world's largest democracy, home to the world's youngest population, a leader in climate action, the face of peace, a market that every company wants to enter and the 4th largest Army in the World.

Today, as we celebrate our glories past, on this day, we also envision a brighter future together!!

A Happy Independence to you !

Friendship Day

- by Jeshwin, Cl. IX

Friendship Day is celebrated on the first Sunday of August every year. There is indeed a story behind dedicating this day to Friendship. It is said that, once the US Government had killed a person, who had a friend who committed suicide in the sorrow of his friend's death. Honouring the depth of their Friendship, this day was named as Friendship Day in America in 1935 and thus began the celebration of Friendship Day.

There is hardly anyone who does not have a friend or who does not know the importance of Friendship. We all have friends in our life and we like to spend time with them.

There are different days in each Country to celebrate this important day. The tradition of celebrating Friendship day began in the West and now India and other countries also celebrate it. People give gifts, chocolates, teddy bears, etc. to their friends. People tie a Friendship band around their friend's wrist in order to honour their Friendship.

Time - The Priceless Treasure

- by Swathisree J, Cl. X

- ❖ Life is a journey travelled on the highway of time.
- ❖ The hands of the clock never stops ticking.
- ❖ The greatest gift you can give someone is your time because when you give your time you are giving a portion of your life that never returns.
- ❖ The 'Highest Achievers' of the world manage their time exceptionally well.

- ❖ Procrastination (Delaying) makes the person an empty vessel.
- ❖ People who procrastinate have very low self-esteem.
- ❖ It leads to numerous physical and mental illnesses.
- ❖ In order to get rid of this, a person should block the distractions and be able to keep up with the time well.
- ❖ As we all are familiar with the proverb "Time and Tide Wait for None", which portrays the value of time, this proverb tells us about the 'tide' which doesn't wait for anyone in the same manner 'time' also doesn't wait for anyone.
- ❖ The Earth revolves around the Sun, the Moon revolves around the Earth likewise our whole life revolves around the priceless treasure which is nothing but 'Time'.
- ❖ If money is lost we can earn it back whereas once time is lost we can't earn it back.
- ❖ Time never returns and cannot be bought at any cost.
- ❖ Thus, time is precious. So, manage your time well by prioritizing the tasks and taking good decisions.

Back To School

- by Dhasvanth P, Cl. VII

Pencils, Glue, Paper, and Books,
My backpack is filled to the top.
I made my way to the bus stop,
And got to school and walked in.
The walls welcomed!

I found my desk calling out my name.
I was ready to be back at School!

Friendship Day

- by Uditha M K, Cl. III

- ❖ Friendship Day celebration takes place on the first Sunday of August every year.
- ❖ The tradition of dedicating a day in honor of friends began in US in 1935.
- ❖ Friendship is divine and glorious.
- ❖ Friendship is always about giving and not asking or taking.
- ❖ It is one of the most beautiful relationships.
- ❖ Friendship is a great feeling.

Independence Day

- by Faiza Afreen, Cl. VIII

India celebrates its Independence Day on 15th August every year. On this day, we honour the sacrifice of our freedom fighters. The whole nation celebrates Independence Day by hoisting the National flag. It is an important National holiday for our Country. Though it is a holiday, we go to school to attend the flag hoisting ceremony. We sing the National anthem and raise a salute to the Tricolour. On this day we celebrate our Country's diverse cultures. People show their love for the Country by singing patriotic songs and by pinning up the prestigious National flag.

"Long live our Great Nation"

Strong or Weak...

- by Diya S, Cl. II

There was a proud teak tree in the forest. He was tall and strong. There was a small herb next to the tree.

The teak tree said, "I am very handsome and strong. No one can defeat me". Hearing this, the herb replied, "Dear friend, too much pride is harmful. Even the strong will fall one day."

The teak ignored the herb's words. He continued to praise himself.

A strong wind blew. The teak stood firmly. Even when it rained, the teak stood strong by spreading its leaves. During these times, the herb bowed low. The teak made fun of the herb.

One day, there was a storm in the forest. The herb bowed low. As usual, the teak did not want to bow. The storm kept growing stronger. The teak could no longer bear it. He felt his strength giving way. He tried his best to stand upright, but in the end, he fell down. That was the end of the proud tree. When everything was calm again, the herb stood straight. He looked around. He saw that the poor teak tree had fallen and was begging for help.

Moral: Pride goes before a fall.

The Cat and The Fox

- by Harini S, Cl. VIII

Once upon a time there lived a cat and a fox in the forest. They were very good friends.

One day they were discussing about the wild dogs. The cat asked the fox, "What would you do if the wild dogs chased you?". The fox replied, "I have many places to hide like hiding in the bushes, boulders or in a pit. The cat said, "But, I have only one choice that is I would climb up a tree".

After some time, they both heard a loud barking sound. The cat screamed, "Oh no! the wild dogs have come". But the fox was thinking about his hiding place and which place was better to hide. The cat climbed up a tree and escaped, while the fox was trapped by the wild dogs.

Moral: "One choice with a little common sense is better than hundreds of choices."

Water

- by Shafiya Fathima K, Cl. III

Everyday we waste lot of water and food. Water, in particular, is a renewable resource but it's also a resource which is limited. We can find, purify and package it, but we can't produce it! No life is possible without water. Without water Earth would come to a stand still. Water is indeed a true saviour of life. Saving water means protecting life on Earth and giving us the chance to provide food and water for people who don't have enough.

“Water is life. Don't waste it.”

The Painter

- by Gowsika S, Cl. V

Sitting on the cold mud floor,
 She paints the valley and hill.
 Giving life to the canvas shore,
 Sees the paint brush bend to her will.
 Her canvas used to be colourless,
 Until she learnt that her brush's strokes,
 Are not always aimless.
 The flows of paint never chokes!
 She dips her brush,
 To draw the big black panther,
 Her legs never in a rush,
 She moves them like a dancer!

Happier Than Ever

- by S. Bharana, Cl. XI

In this tale I'm about to tell,
 Of a heart that rang like a soothing bell.
 Once burdened by pain, with tears it
 was fraught,
 Now it's free, its souring, happier than ever thought.

Like a butterfly released from its cage,
 It dances through life's boundless stage.
 From the darkest nights to the brightest days,
 Happiness blooms in so many ways.

No longer shackled by Sorrow's embrace,
 finding solace in each moment's grace.
 A Melody of laughter fills the air,
 As joy emerges from a hidden lair.

The Farmer And The Well

- by Shiram, Cl. X

One day a farmer was looking for a water source for his farm, So he bought a well from his neighbour. The neighbour however was cunning. The next day as the farmer came to draw water from his well, the neighbour refused to let him take any water. When the farmer asked why, he replied, “I sold you the well not the water,” the poor farmer walked away. The farmer went to the Emperor to ask for justice. He explained what had happened.

The Emperor called Birbal, one of his wisest, courtier. Birbal proceeded to question the neighbour,

“Why don't you let the farmer take water from the well? You did sell the well to the farmer right?” The neighbour replied, “Birbal, I did sell the well to the farmer but not the water in it. He has no right to draw water from the well.”

Birbal said, “Look since you sold the well, you have no right to keep the water in the farmer's well. Either you pay rent to the farmer, or take it out immediately.” Realizing that his scheme had failed, the neighbour apologized & went home.

*Moral: Cheating will not get you anything.
 If you cheat, you'll pay soon enough.*

Father's Day

- by Sai Nikitha, Cl. II

Father you are the best person,
 You are a guide and a companion.
 You are the most wonderful mentor and my best friend.
 You are my greatest support, my biggest comfort and my strongest motivation.
 Dad, you are my hero because of all you do.
 On Father's Day, I want to say I am proud of you!
 I love you so much dad with all my heart.
