Teachers Day

- by Sanjana Parvathy, CL. XI

"IN PRAISE OF OUR TEACHERS"

Within the halls where knowledge gleams,
And future bloom like waking dreams,
Stand figures firm, with heart so true,
Our teachers, guiding me and you.

With patient hand, they show the way,
Through complex tasks of everyday.
They spark the mind, ignite the thought,
And share the wisdom they have brought.

Beyond the books, the facts, the lore,
They teach us lessons to explore;
Of kindness courage, strength, and grace,
To find our purpose, find our place.

For every question, every doubt,
They help us figure things right out.
They see the potential, deep inside,
And help our talents bravely stride.

So, on this day, with voices clear,
We banish every doubt and fear.
A heartfelt "Thank you" we extend,
To mentors, Teachers and our friends.

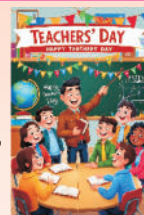

HAPPY TEACHER'S DAY.....

The Unsung Heroes: Teacher's Day

- by Pranayaa, CL. VII

Teacher's Day is celebrated on 5th September to honor the birth anniversary of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan. He requested that his birthday should be celebrated as Teachers Day to honour all the teachers. On this day we should say "Thank you" to our teachers for all their hardwork.

Teachers can be friends. They teach us new things and make learning fun. They help us, teach us, and guide us. They clear all our doubts without any hesitation. And also create memories that stay forever in our hearts.

They organize many activities to help us understand the concepts. Teachers are role models to every student. They help us discover our passion and be confident. Teachers are always special to us.

Time: The Unseen Sculptor

-Kavin Christon, CI- IX

Time is a river, silent and deep,
It steals our moments while we sleep.
It ticks unseen on every wall,
Yet none can hear its secret call.

It hides in laughter, Slips in tears,
It shapes our hopes, Our silent fears.
From childhood games to grown up dreams,
It flows like light in moonlight streams.

We chase it fast, we beg it slow,
We wish it back but it won't go.
It teaches more than books can show,
That every second help us grow.

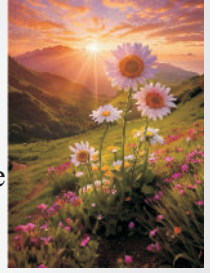

So let us live with purpose bright,
And turn our moments into light.
For time, though swift, can be our friend,
When every heart beat seeks its end.

Natures Song

-Pranitha, CI- VIII

In morning light, the world awakes,
With whispers soft, the Earth it shakes.
The trees sway gently in the breeze,
Their leaves a song that flows with ease

The river's hum, the sky so wide,
With birds that dance, they glide and glide.
The Earth beneath, with a steady beat,
Holds secrets deep beneath our feet.

In nature's arms, we find our peace,
A quiet space where worries cease.

ABC's Friendship

- Dhanya Sree, CI- VIII

Always be honest.
Be there when they need you.
Cheer them on.
Don't look for their faults.
Every chance you get, call!
Forgive them.
Get together often.
Have faith in them.
Include them.
Just listen.
Know their dreams.
Love them unconditionally.
Make them feel special.
Never forget them.
Offer to help.
Praise them honestly.
Quietly disagree.
Rescue them often.
Say you're sorry.
Talk frequently.
Use good judgment.
Vote for them!
Wish them good luck!
X- ray yourself first.
Your words count.
Zip your mouth when necessary.

Note: A poem which starts in alphabetic order is also known as Abecedarian poem

Memories

- by Joshwin Sri, CL. V

Everyone has memories,
Some are good, some are bad.
Some memories are lasting,
Some memories are very brief,
Memories can't be stolen by any thief.

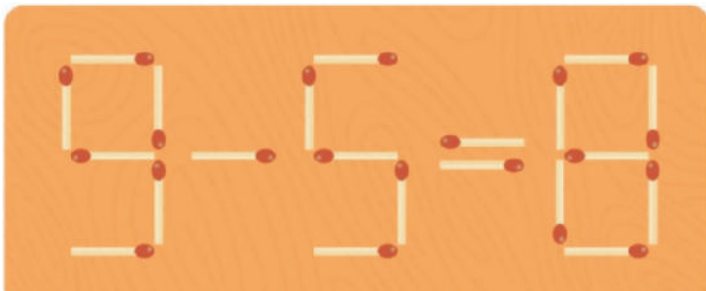

Memories are wonderful moments,
They are as precious like diamonds.
Memories are part of our life.
Relations are a bond between us,
Can't be cut by any knife.

Some memories are from School,
Some are making our friends April fool.
Some memories are wonderful,
Some are very joyful.
